General rules

- Entering the separated interior is only permitted with the express permission of a team member of the German Kiiking Association e.V.. Spectators and accompanying persons must stay outside.
- All documents made available must be read and internalized before registration.
- Registration or entry in the list of participants may only take place in the presence of a team member of the German Kiiking Association e.V..
- Before swinging, all loose objects (e.g. from your pocket) must be put down. From a height and with a lot of momentum, these can pose a danger to others.
- If you want to take pictures or videos, make sure that all recognizable persons agree to the recording. If you want to publish media on the Internet (including social media) on which the Kiiking swings or team members of the German Kiiking Association e.V. are shown, we would like to do so by referring to our website:

www.kiikinggermany.de

- The German Kiiking Association e.V. stands for diversity and a respectful approach to everyone. For this reason, you behave accordingly towards each swing friend and cheer him on. We do not allow discrimination on our premises.
- The swinging is unlimited in time. If there is a high number of visitors (e.g. for larger events in the Rheinaue), the German Kiiking Association e.V. reserves the right to stop the swinging activity prematurely after a time (about 5-10 minutes).

→ If the listed rules are not observed or adhered to, the team member of the German Kiiking Association e.V. reserves the right to take appropriate actions:

- Issue a reprimand from the separated interior.
- Abort or prohibit the swinging activity.
